

SPECIAL LIBRARIES ASSOCIATION
Business & Finance Division
2022 Outstanding Achievement in Business Librarianship Award

Award for Outstanding Achievement in Business Librarianship

This award recognizes a Division member, with a gift of $1,000, who has made an outstanding contribution to the field of business and finance librarianship and information science. It is intended to honor an individual for a specific achievement made within a discreet period of time rather than focusing on an individual's full career. Awarded annually to a member of the Business and Finance Division, the achievement may encompass any area of professional endeavor including, but not limited to, exemplary management, innovative product or service development, research, creative applications of technology, teaching, publishing, leadership in the field, and the dissemination of knowledge to users. The B&F Award for Outstanding Achievement originated in 1984. During 1984-1986, the focus was on outstanding achievements in the use of technology. This award is generously sponsored by Global Financial Data.

The deadline for nominations is December 12, 2022.

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicant must be a member of SLA.
- Prepare a written statement in English of up to 500 words, in Rich Text (RTF), PDF, or Microsoft Word format, on why you feel your nominee is eligible for the award.
- The Business & Finance Community reserves the right to not distribute an award in the event that there are no qualified applicants.

NOMINATIONS

- Submit the statement via email/attachment along with the nomination form provided below by December 12, 2022.
