

Military Libraries Virtual Training Summit 2023

“Libraries at an Inflection Point:

Transforming Services for Tomorrow’s Military”

12-15 September 2023

Microsoft Teams

Call for Presentation Proposals

Hosted by: The Army Library Program in collaboration with the Military Libraries Community of the Special Libraries Association.

Intent: The Military Libraries Virtual Training Summit provides an outstanding professional training and development opportunity for DOD librarians, library technicians, archivists, and other knowledge workers and information professionals. Training sessions will be relevant, interactive, engaging, and support competencies to meet the training needs of librarians and other professionals across the DOD enterprise.

Sought Topics: All topic proposals are welcome that meet the intent of the training summit. Although encouraged, it is not mandatory to present a topic from the “Preferred Topic” list on the attached PDF. Preferred topics are the result of feedback from MLVTS survey which was live 21 OCT to 21 NOV 2022.

To Apply: Fill out the attached PDF and return to the Army Library Program mailbox: usarmy.pentagon.hqda-dcs-g-1.mbx.army-library-program@army.mil

Deadline: 12 January 2023

Proposal Selection: Proposals will be jury reviewed in January 2023 and selectees will be notified in February 2023. All MS Teams presentations will be recorded and made available following the presentation to allow for maximum viewership.

Recommendations: Know of a speaker or subject matter expert you would like to recommend for MLVTS 2023? Fill out the MLVTS Topic Proposal PDF with their contact information.

Presentation Format: Presentations can be live or recorded via MS Teams in the form of informational briefs, posters, open forums/discussions, and introductions/tours of DoD library and related facilities.
