

2021 Distinguished Member Award Nomination

DISTINGUISHED MEMBER AWARD

This award honors a PHT Community member for notable and enduring contributions and service to the Community and the profession. The award represents a cumulative evaluation of an individual's career and emphasizes sustained Community leadership and activity of an exemplary nature. Nominees should excel in one or more areas:

- Outstanding leadership in the Community, at meetings, and in committee work
- Special or notable service to the Community, such as holding office(s)
- Participation in seminars, teaching courses, and public speaking activities
- Publication or editorial contributions to the professional literature
- Promotion of the role of special librarians in the management of information and knowledge
- Other achievements indicating noteworthy dedication to the profession
- Contributions made by the candidate should be made over an extended period of time
- Contributions made by the candidate should have an enduring effect on the Community and/or the profession.

Any member of the PHT Community can nominate a person for an award. Self-nominations will be accepted. Current Executive Board members and Award committee members are ineligible for nomination. Nominations do not carry over from one year to the next. This is a confidential process, so do not inform the nominee or your Community colleagues of the name you have submitted. After the Committee's deliberations, all documents are destroyed except those needed for preparing publicity releases.
